

Dimitris K. Papagiannakis

Dimitris specializes in judicial dispute resolution and has successfully handled more than 4.000 litigations over the years. He is advising and representing companies active in a wide range of industries which include insurance companies, transportation and logistics, motor leasing companies, commercial companies, medical suppliers, retailers and hotel businesses. He practises the full spectrum of civil Law with expertise on law of obligations and tort, commercial law with focus on private insurance law – matters of Solvency II Directive, public law and international transportation & logistics law.

Handled transactions include, inter alia, representation of a Greek insurance company in achieving the first portfolio transfer agreement on motor third party liability insurance ever concluded in Greece, representation of Greece's biggest retailer against an electrical power supplier that illegally implemented adjustment clauses in electricity bills, advising numerous insurance companies on issues related to claims handling, insurance policies terms and conditions, insurance regulatory framework, insurance intermediaries and handling of litigations on relevant matters, advising and representing in judicial cases numerous transportation companies, international forwarders and logistics companies', participation in the buyout of one of the leading hotels in Athens by a UK based fund, representation of a world widely established motor leasing company running a fleet of more than 25,000 vehicles in Greece on issues related to claims and judicial cases handling, execution of a real estate contract for one of the largest logistic warehouses built in Greece.

Dimitris belongs to a family of established lawyers and is the third-generation lawyer in the family. Before becoming a partner of Kerameus & Partners (2019), Dimitris was a founding partner of the law office "Papagiannakis, Mikrouleas & Associates" (2010-2019) and earlier of the law offices "Angelides – Papagiannakis & Associates" (2002-2010) and "Papagiannakis Law Offices" (1995-2002).

PARTNER

[in] [vCard]

Contact

Phone: [+30 214 4054783]

[dpapagiannakis@kerameus.com]

Main areas of expertise

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Corporate & Commercial

Labour

Litigation & Arbitration

Public Law

Real Estate

Education

LL.B. in Law, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece

Languages

English

German

Greek

Admissions

Athens Bar Association

promoted to the Supreme Court

Memberships, Publications & Insights

Supreme Court decisions on several judicial cases Dimitris has handled over the years, have been published in various legal magazines as pillars of change in past judgements.

Dimitris is currently acting as a non-executive member of the board of directors of insurance companies, commercial companies and hotel businesses.